- Jim Callender said there is a 125-pound, 9-month-old puppy up for adoption. Please contact him if interested.

Braggs and/or Happy Dollars

- Linda Telaak got her NM driver's license.
- WNMU is having their homecoming this weekend.

Program

Charlene Webb (left), the Grant County Manager, and Billy Billings, Chairman of the County Commissioners, spoke today about the General Obligation Bond in the upcoming election.

There will be 2 questions on the ballot:

- 1) Approval of $4 million bond for buildings and infrastructure
- 2) Approval of $4 million bond for county roads

They encouraged the club to vote in favor of the bond, as there will be no tax increase for tax payers.

The website for more information is NMVote.org.

Early voting starts on October 9, until November 3.

The election will occur on Tuesday, November 6.

Raffle

Billy Billings won the raffle and donated it back to the Rotary Foundation.

Attendance

We had 18 of 29 active members in attendance, or 62%.
